Larger Library Planned

Ways of financing a $17,000 to $20,000 library building expansion project will be discussed at a meeting of the City Council members with Clayton Neill, representing the Harrison Memorial Library Board of Trustees, Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 p.m.

Council and library board members have informally expressed the belief that the money can be raised without resorting to a bond issue. The library has had a fund of $4000 in reserve for some time. It has recently received a gift of $7000 from an estate. The city has about $30,000 worth of unsold tax title lots, some of which, as soon as the title is cleared, could be sold to furnish the remainder needed to complete the library's building fund. There is yet another possibility in the city's $4500 that has been put aside to be used as matching funds against the money that the State makes available for building purposes.

Whatever the fund raising means decided upon, there is no question as to the sympathy of the city council for the project. They are aware that the need for additional space in the library has been evident for several years. Shelves and reading room space have become so crowded and conditions so difficult that the library can no longer serve the community at full efficiency in spite of a willing, well-trained and courteous staff.

4 Co. Conference On Youth Scheduled For Carmel In May

A four-county conference of the California Youth Authority will be held at Carmel High School Saturday, May 15, it was decided at a meeting of the planning committee held Monday at the high school. The committee was made up of representatives from Monterey, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, and San Benito Counties.

The theme for the May conference will be Planning with Youth for Community Coordination. There will be three sections. Group 1, Mental, Physical and Social Health. Group 2, Recreation and Group Work, and Group 3, Guidance and Employment.

Since the high school can accommodate only 150 persons, quotas for each area were established at the committee meeting Monday. Carmel's quota will be 20 persons interested in youth work and two student representatives from the high school. Citizens who wish to attend the conference should get in touch with Mrs. Mark Raggett, president of the P.T.A.

Oils Disappointing, Watercolors Good In New Shows At The Gallery

BY NANCY LOFTON

The new watercolor and oil shows hung on Wednesday in the Carmel Art Association Gallery are general membership shows, which is a more or less polite way of saying the shows were not chosen by jury. It is the policy of the gallery to have several non-juried shows during the year in which any member may reasonably expect to have his work exhibited. If this is a fair sample of the non-juried show I would recommend no more of them. Whether the absence of competition, the late winter rains or sheer inertia is responsible I cannot say, but the membership of the Carmel Art Association in most cases failed lamentably to bring in their pictures. For the first time in two and a half years the members of the hanging committee had to go to the stacks for pictures to complete the show. There are exceptions of course. Patricia Cunningham brought in a warm and lively study of net dippers on the wharf which seems to me one of the most successful paintings in the show.

The watercolor room contains the most satisfying group of pictures in the gallery. On the south wall of the Beardsley Memorial Room are hanging six watercolors of a calibre one might reasonably expect to find in a gallery which exhibits the work of professional artists. These six watercolors, with a seventh by Leon Amyx, are all different but each of them is painted with skill and conviction. Burton Boundey's rich and sombre watercolor of a high mesa is entirely different from Gene Frances' painting of a Mexican church with its warmth and light and solid masses, but both of the pictures are good to see. James Vance' seascape, Rollin Pickford cold brittle trees, Sam Colburn's rhythmical net menders, Royden Martin's cool and solid boat and bay scene, and Leon Amyx's gay and amusing chicken yard are all watercolors with integrity and interest. This wall of pictures is most pleasantly good and it is unfortunate the other walls of the gallery compete with it in such ill fashion. This show will remain on the walls until May 1. By all means see it, and if someone should disagree violently with my conclusions I should be much encouraged.

Arts And Crafts Exhibits At Club's May Flower Show

Chairman of the Carmel Woman's Club Flower Section, Mrs. Helen Clark Cranston, announces a Flower Show to be given May 1-2 in the Forest Theatre. In conjunction with the May Day Flower Show, the schools and art teachers of Carmel are exhibiting arts and crafts and an Art in Action Show. There will be four booths for painting, sculpture, ceramics and textiles on the Forest Theatre grounds. The room beneath the theatre stage will be a huge gallery of school exhibits, and an open exhibit of paintings and drawings.

Anyone interested in showing art and craft work and anyone who will have a spare hand to lend that week end is cordially invited to get in touch with his art teacher or Howell Armor who is acting as liaison for the artists and the Woman's Club.

The following are committee representatives; painting, Miss Kay Rogers; sculpture, Howell Armor; ceramics, Ernest Calley; textile, Mrs. Jean Pasmore; photography, Miss Leota Tucker; school work, Richard Hagadorn, Carmel High School; Mrs. Beatrice Rea, Sunset School; Sister Dolores Julie, Junipero Serra School.

No April Fool Is Thursday's Fire

Members of the Carmel Fire Department started April off with a rush at 12:27 a.m. Thursday. They answered a call to an apartment house at Lincoln and 5th, owned by Katie Russell. No April Fool's alarm, it turned out to be a real, though small fire, the firemen extinguishing it before it did more than an estimated $100 damage. A bed in an upstairs guest room had caught fire, apparently from a cigarette. The three regulars of the Fire Department turned out, as well as 22 volunteer firemen.

March was a normal month for the Fire Department, according to Chief Vincent Torras. The firemen answered three alarm calls, one still call, and 11 ambulance calls.

We're Off Again On Another M. R. Re-Zoning Battle

Another effort is underway to breach the zoning regulations at the Mission Ranch. The Pasadena Playhouse, in a letter to the County Planning Commission Monday, requested a special use permit to convert the Mission Ranch recreation building into a theatre for a summer season of shows, with nightly performances.

Date for a hearing has been set for April 26, 2:00 p.m. in the Supervisors' Chambers in Salinas.

KING MEDEROS

At Last! "Andy" Has Competition; Mederos Files

King Mederos of Carmel formally filed papers Thursday afternoon with County Clerk Emmet McMenamin as a candidate for supervisor for District No. 5 at the June 1 election. Mederos is the first candidate to oppose incumbent Andrew Jacobsen in sixteen years.

In his announcement Mederos said, "I shall conduct my campaign in such a manner that if elected, I shall enter the office with allegiance to no individuals and to no special interests, but to the citizenry of Monterey County. I am seeking election on the platform of reducing county government expenses by maximum efficiency in administration and in lower taxes."

Mederos was born in Alameda County in 1894, and spent seven years with a State Savings Bank in Oakland. He was an executive on the staffs of two major radio stations in the Midwest for ten years.

He has made his permanent home on the Peninsula for ten years, and was the first manager of the Monterey Bowl. He has lived in Carmel for nine years.

He is active in humane society work, is vice president of the

"We're getting tired of fighting this same battle over and over again," a member of Carmel Unincorporated said indignantly when informed of the hearing. "Judge Jorgenson, in handing down a decision on the status of the Mission Ranch, made it clear that no additions could be made to Mission Ranch property, nor could the existing buildings be put to new or additional use."

He pointed out that the recreation hall—not to be confused with the Barn, which houses a public bar and dance hall, or the club, which has a bar and restaurant—has been used heretofore for organization dinners, private parties and receptions. An average of 50 people a week have been entertained in the recreation hall during the past year. If the theatre permit goes through the number of people handled in the same building would be 400 a night. "That certainly is an extension of use. And consider what it will mean to the neighboring residential area to have to put up with the traffic noises and congestion of 400 more people flocking nightly to the Mission Ranch."

He reiterated that he considered it an imposition for the neighbors of the Mission Ranch to be forced periodically to get together, trek over to Salinas, and argue to maintain the legal restrictions on the Mission Ranch that have been clearly defined not once but several times.

On being informed that one of the planning commission members said that the permit deserved consideration on the grounds that the building would be put to a

League Sponsors Public Meeting For Candidates

All candidates for the Carmel City Council to be voted on at the city election this month have accepted the invitation of the League of Women Voters to present their platforms to the public at a meeting next Friday afternoon, April 9, at 3:30 in Sunset school cafeteria. Citizens are urged to attend, as this is the only general meeting arranged for the voters to meet and hear all the aspirants for seats on the village governing body.

Mrs. Harry Baldwin Gantt, who has been chairman of one of the League study groups during the past winter, has planned the meeting in conjunction with Mrs. Frances Ballard, League legislative chairman, and will preside. After adjournment the candidates will be pleased to meet personally the members of the audience.

PINE CONE SOFTBALL PRACTICE MONDAY NIGHT

Next Monday night at 7 o'clock, the first organized practice of the Pine Cone softball team will be conducted at the Sunset Field. The first three weeks of practice will be in the nature of tryout sessions to give all candidates an opportunity to earn a place on the squad. All softball players who wish to try out for the Pine Cone team are asked to report to Sunset Field at 6:45 Monday night and sign up with the club officials. Players must furnish their own gloves and shoes. Practice sessions will finish at 9 o'clock.

This season will be the third in which the Pine Cone has fielded a team to provide high caliber games for Carmel fans. The best outside competition that is available is brought to Sunset Field throughout the season and capacity crowds have enjoyed the play of the local pastimers. Several members of last year's squad have migrated to other pastures, so there are plenty of positions open to aspiring candidates. Help is especially needed in the pitching department as Ky Miyamoto had to carry the whole pitching load at the end of last season, and the two games a week proved to be pretty rough for the always reliable Ky.

Outside competition will start on Wednesday, April 21st when a fast City League team from Salinas will square off against the local club. The 1948 schedule is being arranged to provide games at Sunset Field on Wednesday and Saturday night during the months of May, June, and July.

GONZALES AND CARMEL NINES CLASH TODAY

League competition for both Gonzales and Carmel gets started today when the Padres and Spartans open hostilities on the Carmel diamond. The tilt is scheduled to get underway at 3:30, and will be a seven inning affair. Gonzales is defending champion of the CCAL B section and is favored to repeat their 1947 performance. With a hard-hitting veteran aggregation in all positions, it is a foregone conclusion that the Spartans will be mighty rough to handle. Sparked by the best battery in the CCAL, Newton pitching and Yates catching, the Valley boys should romp through all competition. The Carmel Padres have an in-and-out ball club which is capable of winning by 10 runs and, also, capable of losing by 10 or more. Given steady pitching and a minimum of fielding miscues, the Carmel nine could provide the big upset of the season and knock off the mighty Spartans.

The Padre pitching ranks have been sadly depleted this year by the injury bug. Lee Winslow, veteran of the hurling corps, sprained his pitching arm in the final basketball game of the season and hasn't been able to throw since. Tom Handley, finest pitching prospect in school, fractured his leg during sliding practice and will be out of action for the rest of the year. Gene Vandervort, a converted second baseman, and Dick Sumner a first baseman by trade, will take over the hurling chores for the rest of the season. The catching department is solid, with both McCreery and Harber first rate maskmen. The initial sack is manned by Dick Weer, who will also hit in the cleanup spot. Walt Frey takes over for Vandervort at second and Phil Yettengel covers the shortstop spot. Paul Warner gives good coverage at the hot corner to complete the infield. Capable reserves for the infield spots are Denicio Narvaez, first base, Paul Artellan, second, and Bill Daniels at third. Patrolling the outfield will be Pat Dormody, left, Newt Goodrich, center, with McCreery and Harber sharing the right field duties. Outfield reserves are Buzzy May, Neils Reimers, Les Bracisco, and Bill Varien.

Game time is 3:30 today and the public is invited free of charge.

PADRE TRACKMEN IN 4-WAY MEET AT MONTEREY TOMORROW

At 1:30 tomorrow afternoon, the Carmel High School track squad will get their initial taste of interschool competition when they

Carmel Boys' Club Midgets won the Second Annual Carmel Boys' Club Basketball Tournament at Carmel High School, held Friday and Saturday, the weekend of March 5. CALLING ALL DOGS

Atherton M. Phleger, Stanford University student, was fined $100 in City Court Saturday on a charge of drunken driving. He was arrested by Carmel police Friday night after narrowly missing the patrol car near the corner of Scenic and Ocean.

Police investigated a complaint that William M. Plein was spending Sunday afternoon shooting his BB gun at cats that had entered his back yard at Lincoln near Sixth. Plein was advised to restrain from directing his weapon at the feline invaders and, if they were a nuisance, to call the SPCA to set traps for them.

William Simkins, a student at the University of California, was fined $50 in City Court Monday on the charge of resisting an officer.

Robert Ryan, also a U.C. student, has been ordered to appear today in Judge George Ross's court to answer charges that he aided Simkins in escaping from an arresting officer.

On Saturday evening, police discovered Simkins inebriated and pulling plants out of pots on the sidewalk near the Pine Inn. Simkins was arrested and, with some difficulty, escorted to the patrol car. There the arresting officer was allegedly restrained by Ryan, and Simkins escaped.

A bird in the hand being worth several in the bush, the officer arrested Ryan and lodged him in the jail in Monterey. Before being bailed out, Ryan is reported with having beaten up two other prisoners in the jail. Pvt. Homer A. Kirby, and T/5 Ruben E. Lee, both of Fort Ord.

Simkins was later reached by telephone at his fraternity house in Berkeley, and was told to appear in Judge Ross's court on the twenty-ninth, where he was fined $50.

Mrs. Samuel N. Bonsall suffered a leg injury Tuesday in an automobile collision at Junipero and Fourth Street. The injury was slight enough, she said, to require no immediate medical attention. Also slightly injured was the infant of Mrs. Dorothy Perry, driver of the other car.

BACK IN CIRCULATION

Tommy Handley, who broke his leg in a practice on the high school baseball field Monday, will be back in school in a day or so with a plaster cast big enough to hold the autographs of his many friends and admirers.

Tom, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Handley, is a sophomore, and has an enthusiastic fan following among the adults as well as his

POOL ARCHITECT ADDRESSES LIONS CLUB

Guest speaker Mark Falk addressed the Tuesday night meeting of the Lions Club, which is boosting a swimming pool fund for Carmel High School. Falk, who is on the staff of the Ernest J. Kump Co., San Francisco, consultants for the swimming pool project, said the plans will be revised to allow new and lower bids to be made for construction of the pool.

Other guests present at the meeting were Fred Hass, Less Dewar, Fred Godwin and Jack Fur.

U. S. Camera Gets Weston Interview

Featured in April issue of U.S. Camera, popular photography magazine, is an interview with Edward Weston by Frances Baer. Illustrations of Weston at work are by Morley Baer. Some of Weston's own photographic studies are included, as is a thumb-nail review of his new book, 50 Photographs by Edward Weston.

Weston's latest activity will be to serve as guest instructor for six weeks this summer on the faculty of the California School of Fine Arts. The Mohammeds will have to come to the mountain, however, since Weston will remain at his headquarters in Wildcat Canyon.

Mathias Schmutz

Mathias "Mat" Schmutz, former proprietor of the Carmel Bakery, died on March 23 in Redwood City. Schmutz was 50 years old, and had lived in Carmel 20 years. He moved to Redwood City a year ago, where he operated the Enterprize Bakery.

He is survived by his wife, Emma Schmutz, two daughters, Emma and Margaret of Redwood City, and a son, Mathias Schmutz, Jr., currently attending the Carmel High School.

Interment was at the Monterey Catholic Cemetery on March 25.

Inexhaustible Hens Continue To Produce For B. C. Egg Sale

The Egg Sale, proceeds of which will be used in construction of a building for the Carmel Boys' Club, continues unabated this week end. Jim Cooke, guiding hand of the egg sale, said that all last week's eggs (courtesy of Mayor Fred Godwin's Hens) were sold, and 300 dozen more will be on hand.

Results of the sale to date have not been tabulated, but Cooke said many more eggs must be sold before the goal of $5,000 is reached. And, said Cooke, if any citizens are allergic to eggs but feel the need to make a donation anyway, they may reach him by calling Carmel 973.

Until the sale is over, the names of the lucky boys who will make a trip to San Francisco to see a Coast League baseball game on April 18 will not be known. Fred Godwin has offered the trip as a prize to the 14 boys selling the most eggs and bringing in the most money from the sale. As of noon Thursday, Kurt von Meier was top salesman, but, Cooke said, it's anyone's guess who will be ahead when the week is over.

Sleigh Bells All Over The Place

Tallulah LeConte Elston, who has been in Germany for the last two years and who will return to Carmel during the summer after touching several South American ports, attended the Olympic Games in St. Moritz, Switzerland, and wrote the following to her mother, Mrs. Arthur Elston:

Hochst, Feb. 9, 1948.

We caught a train at nine Friday night and, with changes in Basel and Chur, were there in Pontresina at 2:30 next afternoon. Stuffed ourselves with goodies from the station vendors—raisins and figs from Spain, oranges from Italy, wine from France, Swiss cookies or chocolate, gum from Missouri! We hadn't slept much all night and were tired but still game—went skating in the Pontresina rink. Wish we had a pic of us getting off the train, each with a suitcase in one hand, food in the other, skates, skiboots, handbags and cameras draped over the shoulders. A pygmy hotel boy piled our bags into a nice sleigh and then pointed out the hotel on the hill and took off with a crack, leaving us to plough through the fresh air on the hoof. We got the two bridal suites of the hotel, bath 'n all. Cost us $45 each to stay six days, meals included, breakfast in our rooms, and laundry done. That "family style" business in the prospectus meant that you sat at the same table each day, used one napkin all week, kept your name on your wine bottle, and took your lunch with you in a paper bag to the Games in St. Moritz.

The busses are run by the Swiss Post Office—beautiful yellow jobs with musical horns and a right-hand drive. The roads were awful—rutty with snow and skiddy. Sleigh bells all over the place. Cars with Italian, U. S., Swedish, French, Swiss license plates, plus U. S. Zone of Germany ones.

At St. Moritz each day things went on all at once in different places. Usually hockey in the early a.m. and skating. In the afternoon skiing and bobsledding. For the first five days all the events were just practice, but wonderful to watch. Later, the finals were mostly at different times so you'd have a chance to see all. The place was alive with visitors: hordes of U. S., Italians, French, Swedes, less of the other countries. Quite a few British. Russia, as you know, reneged—is holding her own Olympics. Guess who'll win! The weather was too pretty to be good for the sports. Ice was soft, bobsruns icy in the shade and soft in the sun, ski runs also alternating. You could observe all sports from almost any angle. Got good pics of bobsledding, skating (fancy and speed), skeleton (man on tummy on flat sled)—some close-ups of Barbara Ann Scott. She's precision and grace and ease plus, but we were terrifically disappointed in her free figures performance—did very little in the fancy line; might have been instructed not to by her trainer: bum ice.

Saw some beautiful horseback riding—jumping. The jumps are across paths between houses, in streets and meadows. Damndest sport I've ever seen. Almost dropped my teeth when I saw the first man leap over a trough!

We had tea at four every day and watched South Africans, South Americans, Koreans, Yugoslavs, Goths—people skiing right down the main streets with sleds, dogs, kids, window shoppers.

Most impressive thing of all was the presentation of awards at the Ice Stadium. I saw them give out the ones for skiing—downhill run. Loud speaker blares: "Allo, Allo... ceremonies protocolaire olympique... Descantes, Messieurs." Then come the names and countries of the first, second and third medal winners. Each walks out to a platform in the middle of the ice, shaped like a platform. The top is for No. 1 man, left side for No. 2 and right side for No. 3. An old St. Moritz man presented the medals as the trainers stood by. Each receiver shook hands with and bowed to the old man. Then the whole stadium stood while the anthem of the winning country was played—all teammates of the winner singing the words. Back of the men (or women) on the top of a small gallery there were three flagpoles arranged in tiers like the platform on which the men were standing. As each man came out his flag was raised. Some throat-catching sight, all this. And, too, in the League Presents Two Speakers On Peace Organizations

This afternoon at 3:30 in Sunset school cafeteria two speakers will present their organizations' plans for achieving world peace by international organization. Mr. Edgar Bissanz of San Francisco will explain the plan of Federal Union Incorporated, and Mr. Allan Cranston will present the plan of United World Federalists, of which he is chairman for organization in Northern California. Both groups are working to combat the potential destructiveness of war with atomic weapons.

The meeting is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the Monterey Peninsula, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Miller Urges World Government For Control Of Atomic Energy

An interview with Robert D. Miller, Official Bikini Observer for the Navy, Chief Electrical Engineer of the San Francisco Navy Yard, who will speak on "What Bikini Means to you and Me" in Carmel tonight, Eight p. m., at Sunset School Auditorium.

BY ZENAS L. POTTER

Robert Miller is a civilian, and an electrical engineer with a brilliant record. During the war he designed electrical controls for the fighting and bombing planes put out by the Douglas Aircraft Company. Now he is chief electrical engineer of the San Francisco Navy Yard. He was the only civilian West of Washington, D. C. who was official observer at Bikini for the Navy.

I went to see Miller on a Sunday morning, several weeks ago, to get him to come and talk in Carmel during Atomic Energy Information Week. His name had been given me by the Association of Scientists for Atomic Education, in Berkeley. They said he was an excellent man: went once to Sacramento to talk and had been back 10 times! The scientists who developed the atomic bomb are alarmed over their creation. All over the nation they have set up offices to provide speakers, to tell the public the facts. Only when they know them, they feel, can the public think straight about international problems and peace.

It was early when I got to the Miller residence in Millbrae, and the Millers were going on a Sunday excursion. It was a lovely home, high on the hills looking out over the Bay. Miller was in a dressing gown and big furry slippers. Two good looking youngsters were tooling around the house, anxious to get going. From kitchen sounds, I concluded that Mrs. Miller was putting up a picnic lunch. Miller, like Branford Shank, atomic scientist who spoke at Pacific Grove Wednesday night, is in his late thirties. He has penetrating eyes.

When I asked him if he would come to Carmel to speak, he said instantly that he would. When I asked at what cost, he said, "For my expenses. This job of telling the public about atomic energy, I feel, is not one for which I want to make a charge." When I said I appreciated that, he said, "I feel that everyone everywhere should know what I saw at Bikini. I want to do all I can to help."

Few people are better acquainted with preparation for the Bikini test than Robert Miller. Most of the test devices on target ships were electrically controlled, and many were installed at the San Francisco Navy Yard, where he is Chief Electrical Engineer. "I'd like to start my talk," he said, "by explaining the test devices and how they were installed, going from them into the test itself, then covering the results, and after that discussing the implications, for the people of the United States and the world."

"Would you cover only the destructive side of atomic energy?" I asked. "By no means," he replied. "It would take time to develop its commercial power uses; but already it is making great contributions to medical and other types of research. I am not an expert on those phases, but no talk on atomic energy should be given without emphasis on the great uses it will serve. That is what it should be used for. We must learn to organize to prevent its destructive uses."

When I asked him what he meant, he said, "The only solution of the atomic bomb problem is some form of international control. The United States made one attempt at it, and failed. I do not believe, however, that can be the end. Atomic war is unthinkable. Some way must be found to set up world controls without big power veto, and backed by an international force capable of compelling compliance by all nations."

"Then you agree with Alan Cranston, your fellow speaker at the Carmel Mass Meeting, that world government is essential?" I questioned.

"It is the only solution," Miller replied. "We tried for effective controls, but failed on the first attempt. We must try and try again. The Bikini test revealed the terrific power of atomic energy. But present day bombs are many times more powerful. Civilization cannot survive an atomic war. We must leave no stone unturned to make another war impossible."

The Carmel mass meeting will start at 8 p. m. tonight. Allan Cranston, speaker with Miller, is an outstanding authority on world government, Author and Foreign correspondent; he presided at the Dublin, N. H. Congress on World Government and is chairman of the United World Federalists of Northern California. Miller will speak first, Cranston will follow; then there will be a showing of the film, "Where Will You Hide?" produced by W. Bradford Shank, speaker of the week in Pacific Grove, which is being distributed

Sunset Students "Tops" In Poundage For Bundle Day

Super-efforts on the part of Sunset School students in collecting clothing for the Save the Children Federation received recognition this week in a letter from George S. Martin, director of clothing collections for the west coast, to Mrs. Edna Lockwood, teacher in charge of the drive.

"We have received a bill of lading covering the shipment of 36 bags and 4 cartons from your school. The total weight is given as 1628 pounds," he writes.

"With 350 pupils, the average per pupil would be nearly five pounds. This is an unusual showing. In fact, I believe this is the next to the highest average we have had in a Bundle Day in Northern California."

"This average reveals real promotions on the part of you and your staff."

"The articles represented in this collection will be of inestimable value to the under privileged recipients."

"On behalf of Save the Children Federation, and for yourself, I want to thank you and all who had a part in this most successful effort for this worthy cause."

The only moving picture ever taken of the world-famous clycotron at Berkeley is included. The film also shows the Geiger counter, by use of which scientists detect the presence of radioactivity. The film is being shown every night this week at some Peninsula church. Saturday night is the last chance to see it in Carmel. According to Zenas Potter, Atomic Information Week chairman, this film is better than any turned out by the atomic scientists and should not be missed.

The Junior-Senior Prom, given in honor of the graduating seniors, will be held this Saturday in the Sky Room of the San Carlos Hotel from 8:30 to 12. Last year's ball, held at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club, was the highlight of the year and this affair, with its "stardust" theme, should surpass even the most favorable expectations. Kathie von Meier, as general chairman has been ably assisted by Louise Daniels, reception chairman; Margot Campbell, decorations chairman; Beverly Withman, refreshment chairman; Dick Taplin, music chairman; Pat Timbers, bids chairman; and Laurel del Hildebrand and Bill Marquardt, publicity chairmen. Music will be furnished by Sid Artellan's Orchestra and the climax of the evening will take place when the Queen of the Prom is crowned as a result of a vote of the Junior and Senior classes.

VALLEY FOLK DANCES

Carmel Valley residents now have opportunity to take the Monterey Union Adult School course in folk-dancing on their home ground. First meeting of the group will be April 9 at 7:30 at the Carmel Valley Farm Center. The group will meet there each Friday evening at the same hour, under instruction of Miss Ladisla Ann Narvaez. There is no charge for the course. Another group of folk dancers was organized in Monterey Thursday.

Board Approves 2 New Structures

Approval of a two-story medical building, to be built by James C. Doud on the south side of Sixth street near Lincoln, was granted by the planning commission at a special meeting held on Tuesday. At a previous meeting on March 17 the commission had deferred approval until a sketch was made of the front of the building by the firm of Robert Jones, architects. The commission had feared that the redwood balcony shown in the plans would be too heavy in appearance, but after seeing the sketch, the members voted unanimous approval.

Plans were also O.K.'d for the construction of a second-story apartment addition to the Pine Inn. The plans for the apartment, in which Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Godwin intend to live, were drawn by Jon Konigshofer.

Carmel Red Cross Reaches Its Quota

Mathew Jenkins, chairman of the 1948 fund drive of the Carmel Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced today that Carmel reached its quota of $14,605 Monday, one day before the drive officially closed.

"Our campaign was very successful," said Mr. Jenkins. "I would like to thank, through this newspaper, all of the block workers and other workers who did a magnificent job in collecting the fund, and all contributors who gave money to this very worthy charity."

"It is very gratifying to see how the Carmel district residents come through when called upon for worthy causes such as the Red Cross. I am confident that the National goal of $75,000,000 will be reached this year as usual."

MOVIES ON PHOTOGRAPHY

The Carmel Adult School will present the latest Eastman 5-reel movie, Highlights and Shadows, in the cafeteria of the Sunset School at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 5. On each following Monday and Thursday special educational slides and lectures will be given. Leota Tucker, photography instructor, invites all to attend.

Me: Sulphur is not only good, sulphur is a necessity. But, when I mentioned the use of sulphur, I gave you a warning.

Voice: Warning? What sort of warning?

Me: I warned that sulphur cannot be used in conjunction with any spray that has an oil base. Have you sprayed your garden with any commercial spray with an oil base?

Voice: Goodness, I don't know. First, I sprinkled sulphur . . . just like you advised . . . and then I gave everything a good spraying. And now my violets are dead . . . and you said in the Pine Cone . . .

But you can't get too fresh with sulphur. If you have used a chemical spray with an oil base, beware of sulphur. The Arnold products have a harmless base and can be used indiscriminately.

Voice: Oh! Dear Me! I guess I didn't read the article on sprays carefully. But what shall I do? I am stocked with all sorts of sprays; Volk, Extrax, Ortho . . . what shall I do, throw them away?

Me: Certainly not. They are all fine sprays. Read the directions on each spray and you will find exact instructions on how to spray, what to spray and what chemicals can be used together safely. How . . . I don't explain about Volk, Extrax and Ortho sprays? My answer is axiomatic. I don't know

BRAMBLETT in Congress

HIS PLATFORM (IN BRIEF)

1. WORLD AFFAIRS. The United States must participate in a program of world rehabilitation, especially with the view of preventing the spread of Communism.
2. INFLATION. We must increase production and restore the purchasing power of our dollars.
3. HOUSING. 'Housing Now, Not Alibis,' is far nearer fulfillment today, because the Congress has taken definite action to that end. The record shows more houses have been built in the past 15 months than in the previous 15 years.
4. VETERANS. We must press to full completion our program for aid to veterans and their families.
5. NATIONAL DEFENSE. We must maintain armed forces sufficient to safeguard our national security against aggression.
6. TAXES. An immediate cut in exorbitant wartime taxes, together with substantial reductions in the national debt by eliminating wasteful and needless government bureaus. THIS WILL INCREASE THE TAKE-HOME PAY OF EVERY WORKER.

7. LABOR. This Congress has provided greater protection and freedom for the wage earner than he ever enjoyed before. Congress must continue to safeguard the rights of the worker against racketeering and abuse.
8. AGRICULTURE. Our prosperity begins on the farm. We must assure our Agriculture of facilities for world-wide trade at fair prices.
9. SOCIAL SECURITY. Expansion and development of social security, benefits with emphasis on adequate pensions for all our senior citizens.
10. TIDELANDS. The immediate return of our tideland titles to California as one of the basic principles of states' rights.

SUMMARY "I shall continue to advocate the representative form of government as provided in our Constitution. I shall always oppose any and all subversive movements advocating the overthrow of our present system. Upon this platform I submit to you my candidacy for re-election."

MONTEREY PENINSULA COMMUNITY HOSPITAL CHAPTER III

The Community Hospital is fortunate in gifts from public-spirited citizens. Upon General Stilwell's retirement from the Army he wrote an article entitled Farewell To The G.I's. for a magazine. The funds he received from the article he gave to the hospital. With this donation they purchased an orthopedic table for the setting of broken bones and for special bone surgery, and the hospital provided a room to be devoted to this branch of medicine.

After the death of Dr. William Gratiot his family created a memorial to his memory by financing the purchase of modern surgical equipment for a major operating room. It consists of an operating table, an anaesthetic machine and a spotlight for very delicate surgical operations. With the addition of the William Gratiot Memorial Surgery the hospital now has three operating rooms.

Of course even with the Hospital going at full capacity as is usually the case, the operating expenses are high. Just as a sample, the monthly payroll approximates $12,000 and the single item of laundry runs to about $1300. Then there are the expenses of food, heating and other utilities. But with careful handling and wise planning they have been able to meet their obligations and to buy several pieces of very valuable equipment including a new X-ray table costing in the neighborhood of $10,000. And they also have purchased a new portable X-ray machine at a cost of $1,000, enabling them to take pictures in the patients' rooms.

With a capacity of fifty-three beds, including forty in the main building and thirteen in the Annex they are able to offer many private and semi-private rooms as well as one four-bed ward and two three-bed wards. Thirty-two accredited doctors make up the medical staff and they are appointed yearly by the Board of Directors. The Hospital is fully approved by the National College of Surgeons and the American Hospital Association.

The present Board of Directors consists of Fred Holmes, president—a retired cattle man now living in Carmel; J. E. Abernethy, vice-president and treasurer. He is the manager of the Monterey County Trust and Savings Bank of Carmel and has held his position with the Board of Directors of the Hospital since its reorganization. Other members of the Board are W. H. Satchel, secretary; A. W. Wheldon, who was also on the original Board; 2nd vice-president; George Schuyler, building contractor of Pacific Grove; and Mrs. W. W. Wallace of Pebble Beach, a member of the Board for many years.

The success of the hospital depends not only on the business acumen of those in charge and the qualifications of the Doctors and Nurses but largely on the people of this community—and that means the three towns of the Peninsula—for they are equally interested. Up-to-date modern equipment costs money—and lots of it—sometimes more than can be allowed after the overhead of the hospital is taken care of. It would seem that civic-minded citizens might occasionally make a donation for something much needed, possibly in memory of a dear one. There is need for a fund to be started in order to keep up with the times in the way of the latest modern equipment and housing. And, by the way, friends, do you know that any contribution made to a non-profit organization is deductible from your income tax? That might enable you to make a larger donation than you might otherwise plan.

*Words clothe the mind, not mind the gaudy pen
Or one creates more rhetoric than men.
Adjectives are shades exactly seen,
As on a dull day the intenser green.

That gilds the lily or deforms the rose;

Of the immortal bard that was to be.
Macaulay, still a youngster, knew
The Iliad's dactyls half-way through;
And at an attic clavichord,
Young Handel all his heart outpoured.
Now Jane, how clear in you we see
The Pierian spring of poetry!*

PUBLICATIONS BY AND ABOUT THE UNITED NATIONS

BY L. LUCILE TURNER

Study of the work and the possibilities of accomplishments of the United Nations is recommended to all citizens by patriotic organizations in this country in order that they may understand the international problems on the U.N. agenda and give support that will strengthen the efforts to bring peace. Group study is often more interesting than individual effort and the expense may be pooled. Some of the following publications were recommended by Miss Mabel Head, who spoke on the peninsula recently.

Official publications of the United Nations and those of the U. S. State Department relating to the U.N. should head the list of magazines and books consulted. There is a considerable number of these from which to choose.

United Nations Weekly Bulletin: International Documents Service, Columbia University Press, 2960 Broadway, New York 27, N.Y. Per copy 15c, annual subscription $6.00. The Columbia University Press handles the printed material of the Department of Information of the United Nations, much of which is issued in English, French, and Spanish for distribution in the various countries. The Weekly Bulletin gives fairly full reports of the U.N. activities, discussions, commission reports on investigations assigned, sketches of prominent persons in the U.N., and a calendar of sessions of the various bodies. The Department of Information also issues a clip-sheet for newspapers and other publications. Additional official publications: The United Nations Newsletter, 50c a year; Structure of the U.N.: U.N. Dept. of Public Information.

The U.S. State Department issues many pamphlets and documents on the United Nations and its organizations and commissions, a list of which may be obtained from the Department. The Department of State Bulletin (weekly—$3.50 per year) of December 15, 1946, gives almost twenty pages to the early work of the U.N. Later issues continue the reports. President Truman's first annual report to Congress on The United States and the United Nations, issued one year ago, may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., price 45 cents. A second report is due soon. There is also the Guide to the United States and the United Nations, revised to September, 1947, Dept. of State Publications No. 2948, Washington, D.C.

Other organizations also issue pamphlets of information on various phases that we wish to know about. Among these are: Soviet—American Relations, by Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America; UNESCO and You: U.S. National Commission for UNESCO, Washington, D.C. (September); Inside the United Nations, Discussion Guide on Religion and Peace: The Church Peace Union, 70 Fifth Ave, New York 11, N.Y.; The United Nations News, a monthly report on the U.N. and its related agencies (usually 16 pages): Published by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, 45 East 65th St., New York 21, N.Y., $3.00 a year.

This latter publication gives condensed accounts of the activities of the U.N. and its agencies and organizations, covering the same ground as the U.N. Bulletin, without including detailed information or quoting commission reports. Groups planning to follow U.N. activities would do well to consult the reports of the Foreign Policy Association, issued twice a month, a non-partisan body devoted to the study of international relations, and the Survey Graphic, which from time to time contains articles in this field. Some of these publications may be obtained in the Carmel Public Library. The League of Women Voters also has issued bulletins (called

Telford Work's Movies Next On Audubon "Tour"

Dr. Telford H. Work will give the last of the season's Screen Tour lectures, sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society, at 8:00 o'clock next Wednesday evening, April 7, in Sunset Auditorium. He will show colored motion pictures of brown pelicans on the Anacapa Islands, birds and mammals on the rock islands off the Monterey coast, and close-ups of many species during the breeding season on the Farallone Islands. Besides being instructive of wild-life habits, these pictures are exquisite, showing raging seas abounding with sea lions while depicting the homelife of penguin-like murre and cormorants, puffins and guillemots.

For those who do not hold season tickets, single tickets may be obtained at the Sunset Auditorium box office before Dr. Work's appearance, with special discount for school children.

Phil Nesbitt Married

Picturesque Cave Rock, overlooking Lake Tahoe, was the delightful locale in which the wedding of Carmel artist Phil Nesbitt and sculptress Ann Rowland took place March 24. In an environment of pine woods and blue water, the quiet marriage was witnessed by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rowland of Berkeley.

Ann Rowland is a modern sculptress who was recently a member of the staff of the Mankier Pottery in Padual Hills, in Claremont. Phil reports that she is very nice looking (and in this we concur) as well as possessing a most agreeable nature. Phil is very proud of her to say the least. At present the couple are living in Brother John's cabin two miles up Big Creek in the Redwoods.

Musical Doings At Arcata

Miss Angie Machado, who assists in training the Bach Chorus, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Moore, recently from Honolulu and now living on a ranch near Watsonville, motored up through the redwoods to Arcata last Monday, March 22. Miss Machado spent an interesting week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulkerson. Jean Fulkerson, who used to live in Carmel, is a skilled cellist, and Charles Fulkerson, pianist, was featured in a Bach concerto last year at our Bach Festival. He is now in charge of orchestra and music at Humboldt State College. Miss Machado said they all had a fascinating time looking over scores for the coming festival this summer at which the Fulkersons fully intend to be present.

On the way home Sunday the trio motored through snow, spectacular snow, they said, for it was gleaming through redwood forests, and tumbled about over the branches of the huge trees.

Gretchen Back Again

Gretchen Gray had a fine week end, staying with Marie Short, dining with friends Loli and George Smith, and departing with Edna and Bill Hesthal for Santa Barbara.

New Resident

Mrs. Sydney Gray of Oakland has come to Carmel to make her home and is at present a guest of Miss Pencilla Smith at Carmelo and Twelfth Street.

Spring Luncheon

April 13, at 12:30 in the afternoon will be the date of a spring luncheon to be held by the Monterey Peninsula Republican Women at the Mission Ranch. There will be a speaker for the luncheon and the general public is invited.

Westons In Garapatos

Fortunate and proud new owners of 80 acres of beautiful wooded land in Garapatos canyon, off the Big Sur highway, are Dorothy and Cole Weston, and Brett Weston. The land has its own water with the meeting of Garapatos and Joshua creek, and is even ready with two complete structures, a house into which Dorothy and Cole will move sometime this week, and a large studio room, built by George O'Brien, which Brett will remodel and live in. The three of them are very happy over their new land and can undoubtedly prove that it is the most beautiful to be found anywhere around.

London Arrivals

The Foreign Policy Association is an impartial, non-profit, research organization, founded in 1918 "to carry on research and educational activities to aid in the understanding and constructive development of American foreign policy." It does not seek to promote any one point of view toward international affairs. It has issued Headline Series booklets on the various nations and their relations to one another and to peace, including France, Russia, Germany, Whose Promised Lands? (the Middle East and India), World of the Great Powers. These booklets, prepared in cooperation with its research staff of experts, aim to give readers unbiased background information to that they can make up their minds intelligently on the great international questions of the day.

F.P.A. also issues semi-monthly reports on international questions (25 cents each, $5.00 a year), of which several recent ones are Czechoslovakia's Road to Socialism, The Independence of India, Empires in Transition — British, French and Dutch.

Boy Scout Fun

On March 20, six boys of Scout Troop 32 who qualified by advancement from rank or by the acquisition of merit badges made a six day trip to Yosemite, where they encountered a fantastic snow storm which dropped two feet of snow and showed some of the boys a lot of white expanse they had never seen before. They had a lot of fun playing about with the snow, building snow forts, and skiing. Lucky boys were: Stanley Fralick, Jerry and Bruce Robison, Raymond Danielson, James Edmondson, and Leslie Doolittle. They were escorted by the Scout Master.

Troop 32 meets every other evening in Carmel Valley at Frank DeAmoral's barn, and it is pleased to announce six new members from the valley making a total of 12 Carmel Valley Scouts.

End Of An Era Party

Blasting roof high and room wide were Jake Stock and his boys playing for the party given by John Ney on Easter Sunday afternoon to say farewell to the Achilles house in the Highlands and more or less formally to close what has been called a two-year era of good living in the Highlands. Opened for the occasion was the huge ballroom, with its winding staircase, enormous fireplace, and ivy-drooping windows. A large red kitty with surrealist face received a buck for the band and a long buffet table loaded with ice, glasses and bottles, serviced the guests. The party began at four in the afternoon and ended when the hep cats had played themselves out. John Upton played cello with the band and Mrs. Jack Stock hit a hot piano. Later in the evening the party revived again with the arrival of Bill and Edna Hesthal from Santa Barbara, and a crop of new guests.

Host and hostesses for the party were Frances Ney, John Ney, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wright, and John Grace. The guest list dipped into San Francisco, Carmel, the Valley, Big Sur, and the Highlands.

The engagement of Mary Singleton to John C. Sigourney was announced last week at Mills College. Mary is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary P. Singleton of Carmel and the late Marvin E. Singleton of St. Louis. Mrs. Amelia Perry of Monterey is her grandmother.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Wellington Sigourney of Oakland. He served as a captain in the counter-intelligence service in Japan during the war. No date has been set for the wedding.

The meeting will feature an arts and crafts display of weaving, ceramics, handmade copper articles, and hand-woven textiles. A short business meeting will be held at two o'clock for election of officers.

Members of the executive board, at their meeting early this week, voted to transfer from the general fund to the scholarship fund the $400 cleared at the rummage sale the first week in March, bringing the fund to a little more than $500. A scholarship for attendance at college will be awarded to a girl graduating from one of the Peninsula high schools. A continuing committee will administer the fund.

South Preferred

Maybe it's sunnier down south in Santa Barbara; lots of people seem to be jaunting down there. Marjorie Lloyd was another visitor, driving down with Hildreth Hare, and returning in time for Easter parties.

Home Town Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Morse spent the week end getting away from it all at Rancho Los Laureles in the valley.

With Zoe

"Entrance April, like an idiot, babbling and strewing flowers," so says Edna St. Vincent Millay, and it is rather a nice vision of a spring village, scattered, hung, garlanded with flowers. The FLOR DE MONTEREY on Franklin Street in Monterey will help you preserve this April flower picture, for it is fully stocked with every flower and potted plant that April could imagine. Easter is but a seasonal herald, and you will want to carry on the spring tradition with armfuls of flowers, roomfuls of fresh color.

To show off beautiful tanned legs and to toss over bronzed shoulders, for protection against a whipping April breeze, terry cloth coats at the SILVER THIMBLE will carry you beach-smartly down Ocean Avenue and keep you feeling groomed while you play in the sand. The shorties are colored white, bright yellow, blue, pink, are open down the front, have full backs and big pockets. The quarter length come in pure white alone, have big pockets, and a corded rope swung through the middle. Play away in a terry cloth coat from the SILVER THIMBLE.

Edith Griffin at the VILLAGE BOOK SHOP on Ocean Avenue announces the first sale to be had in the Book Shop. To get plenty of space and breathing room for all the new books, the VILLAGE BOOK SHOP will place all ever-so-slightly-worn books upstairs in the gallery, where they will be sold at sharp reductions. Eager book buyers will circle Monday, April 5, with a sweep of purple, for this is opening day of the sale, which will go on for a limited time only.

Writers, Secretaries, you with racing minds and flying fingers, will be excited about the portable Underwood typewriters now to be had at the BY THE SEA SHOP. This shop, on the corner of Dolores and Sixth Streets, has just received its allotment of typewriters; in stock now for immediate delivery are three different models: Noiseless, Champion, and Universal. Line up for this valuable equipment. Mr. Edwards can service these typewriters for you, and will also be glad to repair your adding machines.

Fashion arows point throat wise for important effects. HOWARD'S on Alvarado has the most sensational bit of collar adenda we've seen in many a spring: ties made of glittering sequins to tie with a tiny cord about one's neck, and hang straight, simple and flashing upon a black sweater or any neutral background. There is chic black, shocking pink, sea colors of pale aqua and coral, and a deep red. A tie made of gold kid is a brilliant addition. Department of underwear: those nice Mabs pants ies in white, blue, black, slightly elasticized to give superb fit; and if you really detest girdles, there is nothing for you but Suspants, a panty you can wear with a garter.

Complete food coverage is carried on up at KIP'S where you are invited every day to take your choice of groceries, meats, liquors, and—Flowers! The groceries and liquors are fine specimens of domestic and imported stock, and as for the flowers, there are Holland Iris, stock, daffodils, ranunculus, and narcissus poeticus, brought in fresh every day from Marina. Float your vases with fresh spring flowers from KIP'S and fill your cupboards, refrigerators, and coolers with meats, groceries, and festive wines.

Music Hounds! Mr. Gookin at the CARMEL RADIO AND SOUND SERVICE (down a little driveway off San Carlos Street) has a two-unit, 15 tube chromium plated AMFM radio, which has sound appeal, sight appeal. It is custom built to fit into any space or cabinet. Modern home builders will like to place it functionally right in the wall. Others will want to design a superb cabinet to hold it. Everyone will be pleased with its smooth tone, its smart shape, and its exceedingly reasonable price. Have a chat with Mr. Gookin, who will tell you all about it, and switch on the tones for you.

Attention please, hi school smartly dressed set: the LEATHER SHOP on Alvarado is sporting for your special approval Cattle Brand sport belts for $3.00, made of aluminum with western cattle brand designs from well known ranches. The brands are all authentic and there are twelve of them linked by red or blue or green or natural leather—Branded bracelets sell for $1.00, come in all sizes, and have a four inch adjustment. All smart dressers will want to link on nickel steel concha belts, strikingly handsome and selling for only $5.00.

Patios! Prepare for the smartly gowned girls who will appear in your sunny spaces, sportgroomed to perfection from the new HARRIET DUNCAN shop on Dolores street. Striped seersucker in three pieces, of bras, cuffed shorts and swinging jackets, to be sold together or separately, will cause the sun to shine upon you, and a whole family of denim wear could easily carry you through springtime. There are denim skirts, slacks, pedal pushers and shorts, the slacks and skirts smartly matching in belts and pockets; these are accompanied by Dan River plaid bras and long sleeved sport shirts. Another family of Bird's Eye white pique steps to the front with bra and shorts, a two-piece outfit with tightly fitted top, and a wonderful sun dress with bolero jacket. Master in this pique family is the fitted top coat which will go over everything. And there you are, fitted by HARRIET DUNCAN for every patio need.

Eternal enchantment is forever found in the April stone, the diamond, featured this month at WHEATON'S JEWELERS on Alvarado Street in Monterey. The diamond is known as the King's Gem; it's cool shirring clarity produces fearlessness, invincibility, brings victory and gives superior strength. It gives its wearer fortitude, courage, and good fortune, provokes spiritual ecstasy, and also possesses magic properties to drive away nocturnal spirits and resist devils. Undoubtedly its most potent power is to make women as royally beautiful as the jewel itself.

The long awaited opening of the VILLAGE LAMPLIGHTERS takes place today, April 2, when the smart building (the old Booksellers location) opens its doors from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. In an Early American atmosphere you will find period accessories of odd tables, chairs, and the specialty of the shop, an infinite variety of fascinating lampshades, custom made, to be ordered on your approval. Be sure to investigate the open doors, and to look over the shades which will amuse you, surprise you, and turn your head with ideas for spring re-decoration.

If you want to order a case of beer, put up in cans, or in bottles you don't have to return, just phone EL FUMADOR, Carmel 111, and the beer will be delivered to you, provided, of course, you are within the Carmel limits. This is an inexpensive and comfortable way to receive your beer supply. EL FUMADOR carries fine Western brands and five Eastern brands of good pungent beer.

Ever hear of Gyroducting? It is the wonderful new system which rounds curves for you if you need them, and shapes them down if they have become too round. The GYRODUCTING SALON, which opened Wednesday, March 31, is located at the top of the stairs in the new Steve Patterson building on Sixth and Dolores. The slogan for this miraculous salon, is: "If your figure is not becoming to you, you should be coming to us."

We've been prattling along about the Mexican food served by Manuel and Felicitas at their restaurant on Huckleberry Hill as though everyone had a nostalgic longing for Mexico, Spain, or a border town. Maybe a lot of you Easterners, Navy families, newcomers in general, have never even tried it. You have a real treat in store for you. Drive straight to MANUEL'S RESTAURANT in New Monterey and find out for the first time in your lives, possibly, how delicious tacos, enchiladas, frijoles can be. And there is something about the atmosphere that surrounds this kind of cooking that will help you feel doubly enchanted.

Newcomers to Carmel, who have possibly taken STAUFFER SYSTEM treatments at one of the 300 studios scattered over the United States, will be glad to know that Carmel has its own STAUFFER SYSTEM STUDIO situated on Mission and Fifth. Wives of naval officers at the Del Monte School would enjoy whipping into Carmel for a refreshing treatment, and there is many a Carmel newcomer, old timer, who could do with a bit of weight reducing or body conditioning. Della Vanney will be your hostess, and you remain in complete privacy while taking your machine controlled treatment. Phone 2101-W and start your course right away.

Educators Convention

A conference of California superintendents and staff members at Asilomar, sponsored by the County Superintendents association, San Francisco state college and the California State Department of Education will have for its theme Curricular Services for California Youth. Two Eastern educators Hollis L. Caswell, associate Dean of the Teachers College, and John Norton, Director of the Division of Administration and Professor of Education Administration, Teachers College, Columbia University, will appear on the panel, as well as Roy Simpson, State Superintendent.

The conference, which opened with a dinner meeting Wednesday, March 31, will continue through April 3, as announced by Miss Gladys Stone, treasurer of the county superintendent's association.

Holidays And Grandchildren

Seen about town as chic and sprightly as ever was Muff Benson, down from her studies at the University of California to spend gay fiesta-filled holidays. Muff arrived Thursday, which gave her plenty of time to see all her old friends. She has decided on dramatic writing as her major, and is so enthusiastic about it she plans to attend the summer session at California.

Mrs. Carmalita Benson, Muff's mother, announces another grandson has been added to her family. Young Christopher was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Benson, Thursday, March 18, an extremely coincidental date, for it is also the birthday of Muff Benson. Christopher is the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Benson.

Colburn In Hollywood

Sam Colburn had a gay time in Los Angeles recently and was that rare phenomena, a Carmel citizen at the Hollywood razzle dazzle of an Academy Award Show. But much more exciting to Mr. Colburn than any partying is the fact that the Associated American Artists will be exclusive agents for handling all of his water colors. The magnificent AAA building in Los Angeles is supposed to outshine even the fancy suite it possesses on Fifth Avenue in New York.

Evening Of Music

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrenius Newcomb have been entertaining Dr. Walter W. Marseille, a psychoanalyst of San Francisco, and since music is Dr. Marseille's avocation, a concert will be given next Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Evans. Mrs. Evans will accompany, while Dr. Marseille, baritone, renders several of Schubert's lieder in the Winter Journey group.

Valley Infant

We thought Big Sur was winning but the stork has at last condescended to visit the valley via the Peninsula Community Hospital, leaving the precious package of a little girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allaire.

All Saints' Luncheon

The April luncheon of The Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints' Episcopal Church, will take place on Wednesday at the Parish House at 12:30 p. m. Canon George Hall, who is in charge of College Work for the Diocese of California, will speak on New Missionary Frontiers. Reservations should be made before Monday with Mrs. D. MacMillan Kerr. Non-members and guests are welcome. An experienced sitter will be at the Rectory, to care for the babies and small children of mothers who wish to attend the luncheon.

Big City Days

Two gay Carmelites, P. A. McCreery and his son Lew Earle, soon to graduate from high school, spent a fine week in the big city seeing all the sights and entertaining themselves mightily. They report seeing all the ball games and getting admirably tanned zoo visiting.

Called East

Mrs. Charles S. Griffin, sister-in-law of Miss Edith Griffin, was called East by the death of her sister, Miss Fanny B. Greene, and returned last week to Croton-On-Hudson.

Fashion Show

Helen Lightner Dean presented a varied and colorful line of spring and summer clothes from her Cinderella Shop during luncheon last Wednesday, at the Pine Inn. The group included smartly tailored suits and dresses for the older woman as well as a complete change of sports clothes for the younger set.

The star outfit of the show was a classic tailored white linen suit worn by Mrs. Eugene Armstrong. It is made of fine imported Moygashel linen which is virtually uncrushable—so different from the wrinkled appearance a linen suit gave ten years ago. Tanned Mrs. Richard F. Taylor almost matched the cocoa colored dress she modeled in the same linen. It had a long skirt and cherry red and green linen applique on the cuffs and collar.

An emerald green Shantung sports dress worn by Mrs. John Clancy was handsomely tailored with a novel leather belt which fastened in back. Also in the casual sports group was a grey and lemon cotton sun dress with dramatic wide straps and a full swing skirt. This was shown by Mrs. Carol Sigetti. For the more active young woman Mrs. Armstrong presented a three piece pedal pusher outfit. The bra and pedal pushers were in a muted green and blue wool plaid, and the jacket which showed the chinese influence was, appropriately enough, in Chinese red wool, and handsome enough to wear over everything from a formal to a street dress.

Among the suits was a Benham original in navy blue with a ballarina skirt and an unusual square collar. With this Mrs. Taylor wore a pert little blue straw hat trimmed in red and white. A green wool suit with a fitted jacket shown by Mrs. Sigetti, and a white wool gabardine with a shawl collar which Mrs. Clancy modeled caused a great deal of comment... especially the latter for it sported a little striped vest instead of the more conventional blouse.

Mrs. Earl Dewar showed a black faille suit with three-quarter length sleeves and a crisp white jabot at the throat, then a striking white sharkskin dress with a navy dotted sahn and scarf.

Mrs. Clancy wore Milgrim's Hat of the Month, which they feature in Vogue, with a fabulous two-piece outfit consisting of a tan and turquoise print dress and a tan wool jacket, a John Casella original.

Also notable were a white net formal with hand-painted bluebirds on the skirt, and Clair McCordell's famous black pique dance frock. The bags the models carried, complementing their outfits, were shown through the courtesy of the R. and M. Collins Shop in the Pine Inn lobby.

Next week The Carmel Dress Shop will present the Fashion Show at Wednesday luncheon at the Pine Inn from 12:00 to 2:00.

TOO MUCH CIRCUS

The students' Carnival, originally scheduled at the Carmel High School on April 2, has been postponed until Friday, May 14, because the Bailey Bros. Circus will be in Monterey on April 2.

In spite of the postponement, the program will be as gay as originally planned, according to general chairmen Jennefer Lloyd and Biz Carr, and will include bowling, dancing, nail hammering, basketball shooting and dart throwing, with each class and club sponsoring a booth of its own.

Valley Relaxation

Mrs. Clements Fatjo and daughter Paula of San Francisco have been relaxing at Rancho Los Laureles and are now on their way South.

Art Gallery Tea

The public is invited to a tea at the Carmel Art Gallery on Sunday, April 3, from three to six. Mrs. Armin Hansen and Mrs. George Seideneck are in charge of the arrangements, and guests will be received by Mrs. Fritz Wurmann, Mrs. Edward McMurty, and Mrs. Jessie Gilby.

Guests At Outland

Mr. Howard Johnston, Mrs. Paul Flanders' brother, will arrive this week from Palm Springs. Mr. Cecil Robertson of St. Paul, who has accompanied Mr. Johnston on a motor trip through the south west will spend the week end at Outland. Mrs. Johnston has been spending the winter with Mrs. Flanders.

Reception For Otto

Preceding the Town Hall lecture, Saturday, April 10, a reception and buffet super will be given for Otto of Austria from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock, at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club. Hostesses will include the Mesdames Peggy Porter Marquard, Frank Watkins, Frank Work, W. R. Holman, Fenton Grigsby, Verne Skillman and Clyde Dyke.

THE RAIN

Two slight showers this week, one .06 and the other .11 brought the season's precipitation to date, 11.40 inches. Last season to date was 10.92.

Girl Scout Thanks

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 38 wants to thank everyone for making their Fat Drive such a success. About 140 lbs. of fat were collected by the girls over the spring vacation and they were paid over $10.00 by the butcher for it. This money will be used for postage and small articles of clothing to be put in kits for needy children overseas. There will be a Carmel District Council meeting Thursday, April 8, at the Girl Scout House.

Noel Sullivan In Arizona

Noel Sullivan left Tuesday morning for Phoenix, Arizona, to visit his niece, Mrs. Alice Doyle Mahoney. He will return sometime this week end. The night before leaving, Mr. Sullivan gave a small folk song concert at his home in the Carmel Valley.

Silesian Visitors

Visiting her cousin, Mrs. James C. Dodd, has been Countess Friederike Von Strachwitz and her daughter Frances (who attends Dominican). Countess Von Strachwitz and her six children came to this country from Silesia last June and are with Mrs. William B. Johnston in Reno at present. Still in Silesia and making plans to join his family soon is Count Von Strachwitz.

Mrs. H. W. Toulman entertained the Countess at tea; Miss Anita Dodd gave a luncheon for her at Del Monte Lodge, and Mrs. James C. Dodd hosted a tea in her cousin's honor.

Stillwell Book Published

Mrs. H. Hamilton Barnes from New York City is visiting her sister Mrs. Joseph Warren Stilwell at her Carmel home, Llanfair, at Carmel Point. Mrs. Barnes finds Carmel very delightful and is enjoying the many parties given in her honor. Excerpts from Gen. Stilwell's Journal, The Stilwell Papers, are being published in the April number of The Ladies Home Journal under the title General Stilwell Reports. The book was edited by Theodore H. White and published by the William Sloane Associates.

Florida Yachting

Just returned to the Monterey Peninsula Country Club home is Mrs. Vera H. Shepard, who left last December for a visit with the G. Harton Singers in Sewickley, Pa. Mrs. Shepard's daughters, Patricia and Geraldine, joined their mother in Sewickley, and the threesome journeyed with the Singers on their yacht along the Florida coast. Patricia and Geraldine had been spending the winter in New York.

Flight From Texas

Flying up from Biggs Field, where he is stationed in El Paso, was Major Harlan Wilder who arrived in Carmel Friday evening to spend the night with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Cree Wilder. With him was navigator Lt. F. Rademeyer, who also spent the night at the Wilder's home. The officers flew up in an A-26 bomber and left for their field Saturday afternoon.

Easter Service

A good sized group of young people enjoyed the Easter Service in the sanctuary of the Church of the Wayfarer Easter evening. The program was presided over by acting president Harry Watson. Solos were by Becky Bell and Barbara Stoney. Various speakers of the evening were Landis Crosby, Litany; Carroll Briggs, responsive reading; Roland Newcomb, poem; and Hugo Bedau, who read a story. This next Sunday Ursula Bartlett, a high school senior, will tell the group of her seven months' stay in Lima, Peru.

Dr. Fields House Guest

Mrs. Edward Arntzen (Marjorie Dawson) arrived Tuesday from Bellingham, Washington, for a visit with Dr. Helen Field in her new home on Santa Rita near Pico. Mrs. Arntzen is a Carmel "summer old timer" since she and Dr. Field, before the latter made her permanent home here, spent some 25 summers in Carmel. Dr. Field returned last week from a two week's visit in New York and Connecticut with her sisters, and reports enjoying dramatic snow storms in both Connecticut and Wyoming.

Bundles Meeting Thursday

The next meeting to sew and pack bundles for European relief, sponsored by the United Council of Church Women, will take place on Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Parish House of the Church of the Wayfarer. Clean, worn clothing, curtains, blankets, bedspreads, may be left in boxes just inside the door of the Parish House of All Saints' Church, or Mrs. Walter Lehmann, Carmel 1287, will call for them if requested. Clothing for children is made from the good parts of worn adult garments. At the last three meetings over 400 pounds of clothing were sent off and the Auxiliaries of All Saints' and the Wayfarer Churches are anxious to keep up this fine record. Money is also needed for postage of the bundles.

Included in the sermon are the following citations:

I Corinthians: "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1:10).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfils the Scripture, 'Love they neighbor as thyself'; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry, — whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed" (p. 340).

"better use," he stated that it is highly possible that the member was confusing the recreation building with the Barn. A check has revealed that the management of the ranch has no intention of surrendering either the Club or the Barn to any other purpose than their present night club activities. The building under consideration is the recreation building, sometimes called the banquet hall, which, under the present zoning restrictions, may not be used for a night club or public bar.

The Carmel Unincorporated member pointed out an additional danger in the present application. If the permit is granted to the Pasadena Players, a theatrical use has been established on the property, and a precedent has been set. Having granted one such permit, the planning commission would find it difficult to deny applications from other companies or individuals for theatrical use of the property. "We could wind up with a movie house down there in our laps, or a burlesque, complete with strip-tease.

"I cannot understand why our public officials put us through all this all over again. Surely they know by now what the law is regarding the Ranch zoning and what is the feeling of the residents of the area."

"Ah, but it is such a worthy cause," we pointed out. "Art! Drama! Have You never heard of the PASADENA PLAYHOUSE! And they are promising Carmel a special treat. GUEST STARS FROM HOLLYWOOD!"

Our unincorporated member was inclined to take a very narrow view of the matter.

"We have a theatre of our own, and a tradition that has been some 40 years in the making. Don't see why we should destroy our zoning regulations so that a highly subsidized theatrical group may cash in on Carmel's reputation. Our local players keep going through slim pickings of the winter and then have to face that kind of competition for summer audiences. I don't see how they can do it and survive.

"I've seen the Pasadena Playhouse go into other small towns. One had a small drama group of its own. It was smothered. The Playhouse pulled out a couple of years later, and the home drama never revived."

"You forget, this group was sponsored before the Planning Commission by two Monterey businessmen," we reminded him.

"Then why didn't they bring it to Monterey. Why inflict it on us?"

Why, indeed?

Monterey County SPCA and is a State Humane officer. As an SPCA officer he travels widely through the county, and through this travelling he feels he has gained a first-hand knowledge of the needs of the area. So well recognized is his ability and experience in humane work that Sheriff Roy Mac-

Phail has asked his advice and assistance in setting up plans for an animal shelter in Hollister.

Mederos commands a warm spot in the hearts of Carmel animal lovers for the care and tenderness with which he helped Town Dog Pal through his last days.

Though Mederos neglected to mention it himself, Cree Wilder, one of his many friends, recalls that he served overseas with the 31st Engineers in World War I. Wilder served in the same outfit.
